MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Statement of the Objects and Reasons for the Bill

Article 209 (5) of the Constitution confers on Parliament powers to regulate the exercise of fiscal responsibilities by county governments. The principal object of the Bill is to provide a legislative framework for imposition of property taxes on land and buildings by county governments pursuant to Article 209 (3) (a) of the Constitution.

The Bill seeks to provide for enhancement, certainty, uniformity and fairness in levying of property rates by the counties. The Bill seeks to provide a buoyant source of revenue for county governments. The revenue is necessary to enable each county government perform the functions assigned to county governments as set in the Fourth Schedule to the Constitution and enable the county government realize its development agenda.

The Bill also provides for establishment of the National Rating Tribunal responsible for resolution of disputes relating to property rating.

Part I (Clause 1- 6) of the Bill contains the preliminary provisions.

Part II (Clause 7-20) of the Bill contains provisions on duty to levy rates by county governments and principles to be adhered to while collecting the revenue which is in line with the Constitution and Public Finance Management Act, 2012. This part defines who a rateable owner is, their mandate and the requirements of ensuring rates are paid when they fall due. The part further outlines different categories of properties considered for purposes of rating. The part provides for forms of rating, notice of rating, setting of rating struck, notice of rate, payment and remission of rates, discounts and waivers and enforcement of payment of rates. In addition, the Part also provides for the procedure for claim and payment of contribution in lieu of rates.

Part III (Clause 21 – 25) of the Bill contains provisions on appointment and powers of valuers. Clauses 21 and 22 of the Bill lists the criteria of one to be appointed as a valuer, Clauses 23 and 24 of the Bill gives the responsibilities and powers of the valuer. Clause 25 provides for the role of the Chief Government Valuer with respect to standardization and harmonization on preparation and implementation of the valuation rolls across the counties.

Part IV (Clause 26-36) of the Bill contains provisions on the valuation for rating. The part gives the general basis of valuation, declaration of ratable areas and methods used for valuation. Clauses 29 and 30 provides for preparation and contents of valuation rolls and supplementary valuation rolls together with their alterations. Publication of the roll, the objections thereof and exceptions are provided for in the part. Uncontested draft valuation roll and draft supplementary valuation roll are also provided for in clause 35.

Part V (Clause 37- 53) of the Bill contains provisions on National Rating Tribunal. This part seeks to establish a Tribunal with part time members, the jurisdiction of the Tribunal is specified under clause 39, The Part also provides for the conduct of proceedings, quorum, disclosure of interest, powers of the tribunal, tenure, remuneration, staff of the tribunal, vacancy, how to produce evidence, penalty for failure to comply with tribunal's lawful order and appeal mechanisms from the Tribunal.

Part VI (Clause 54- 55) of the Bill contains miscellaneous provisions providing for notices and repeal of Cap 266 and 267.

Part VII (Clause 56-57) of the Bill contains proposed regulations and savings and transitions of any written national and county laws relating to valuation and rating.

Statement on delegation of legislative powers and limitation of fundamental rights and freedoms

The Bill delegates legislative power to the Cabinet Secretary to make regulations. The Bill does not limit any fundamental rights or freedoms.

Statement as to whether the Bill is a money Bill within the meaning of Article 114 of the Constitution

The enactment of this Bill may occasion additional expenditure of public funds.

Statement as to whether the Bill Concerns County Governments

This Bill is a Bill concerning county governments within the meaning of Article 110 of the Constitution and the Fourth schedule to the Constitution.

Dated the 3rd November, 2022.
