And there being a Quorum at the expiry of the ten minutes;

4. COMMUNICATION FROM THE CHAIR

The Speaker conveyed the following Communications from the Chair: -

i. Invitation to the 2023 National Prayer Breakfast

“Honourable Senators,

As you are all aware, the National Prayer Breakfast is an annual event in the Calendar of Parliament. It is an interdenominational prayer meeting sponsored by Members of Parliament in Senate and National Assembly.

This year's National Prayer Breakfast is scheduled to be held on Wednesday, 7th June, 2023, from 7.00 am at the Safari Park Hotel in Nairobi and the theme is “Reconciliation with God and with Man”.

The event is being coordinated by a National Organizing Committee which has been working closely with the Kenya National Prayer Breakfast Coordination team. The Organizing Committee is co-chaired by Sen. Daniel Maanzo, MP, of the Senate and Hon. Samuel Chepkong'a, MP, of the National Assembly.

Honourable Senators,

As you may recall, on Wednesday, 31st May, 2023, the Senate passed a Resolution to suspend the morning sitting on Wednesday, 7th June, 2023. This was done with a view to allow Senators an opportunity to attend the National Prayer Breakfast. I therefore, urge all the Senators to prioritize and attend the event.

Further details relating to the event will be issued through the Office of the Clerk.

I thank you.”

ii. Distribution of the Compendium of Considered Rulings, Directives and Guidelines Issued by the Speaker and a Handbook for Legislators on Plenary and Committee of the Whole Proceedings

“Honourable Senators,

A part of our duty as legislators is to continually seek to better the legislative process and also make a contribution to its development. In this respect, the Senate, through the Office of the Clerk, has developed two publications, the Compendium of Considered Rulings, Directives and Guidelines issued by the Speaker of the Senate of Kenya during the 12th Parliament and Handbook for Legislators on Plenary and Committee of the Whole Proceedings.

These two publications contribute to the repertoire of publications that document the Senate's practice, precedence and procedure over the last decade or so. They also make an input in the continuous capacity development of legislators and parliamentary staff.

Honourable Senators,

The Compendium of Considered Rulings, as its commonly referred, form part of the practices and traditions of the Senate as it highlights the full text of the rulings as given by the Speaker, the Deputy Speaker and other Presiding Officers and serve as a point of reference for future Speakers when faced with matters of a similar nature. The Compendium is also a reference point for rulings that may require review or further development.

On the other hand, the Handbook for Legislators on Plenary and Committee of the Whole Proceedings offers practical insights on how to prosecute legislative business in the Senate, within the framework of the Standing Orders. It highlights the proper order of business and gives tips on what, when and how legislators may make their contribution in the Senate.

Honourable Senators,

The two publications are available in the Senate Journals Office which is located on the ground floor of Parliament Buildings, and is the first room on the left in the hallway, as you make your way to the Chamber. It is my hope that you will find the two publications useful in the discharge of your Constitutional roles and responsibilities.

I thank you.”

iii. Visiting Officers from the County Assembly of Bungoma

“Honourable Senators,

I would like to acknowledge the presence, in the Speaker’s Gallery this afternoon, visiting officers from the County Assembly of Bungoma. The officers who work in records management are in the Senate for a five-day benchmarking visit with their counterpart in the Parliament of Kenya.

Honourable Senators,

I thank you.”
