3. QUORUM OF THE SENATE

The Speaker, having counted the Honourable Senators present at the commencement of the Sitting and confirming that there was no Quorum, directed that the Bell be rung for ten minutes, pursuant to Standing Order 40;

And there being a Quorum before the expiry of the ten minutes;

The Speaker invited the Clerk to call the Orders of the day.

4. COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE CHAIR

The Speaker conveyed the following Communications from the Chair:

a) Resumption of Sittings of the Senate for Part III of the Fourth Session

“Honourable Senators,

I take this opportunity to welcome you back from the recess. I hope you had time to meet with your constituents, friends and families over the past two weeks. I also hope that you took some time to rejuvenate your spirits for the resumption of regular sittings. Part III of the Fourth Session commences today and will run until the rise of the Senate on Thursday, 12th June, 2025.

Honourable Senators,

As you will recall, in Part II of the Session, the Senate considered and passed seven Bills, being-

- I. the County Governments Additional Allocations Bill (Senate Bills No. 1 of 2025);
- II. the Energy (Amendment) Bill (Senate Bills No. 42 of 2023);
- III. the County Public Finance Laws (Amendment) Bill (Senate Bills No. 39 of 2023);

- IV. the County Assembly Services (Amendment) Bill (Senate Bills No. 34 of 2023);
- V. the County Assemblies Pensions Scheme Bill (Senate Bills No. 14 of 2024);
- VI. the Land (Amendment) Bill (National Assembly Bills No. 40 of 2022); and
- VII. the National Disaster Risk Management Bill (National Assembly Bills No. 24 of 2023).

The Senate Bills, as well as the National Assembly Bills and their schedules of amendments, have since been forwarded to the National Assembly for consideration. Further, the Senate passed the National Assembly amendments to the Persons with Disabilities Bill (Senate Bills No. 7 of 2023) and the Bill is now awaiting assent by His Excellency the President.

I take this opportunity to commend all Senators for your dedication and hard work in advancing the legislative business. However, I wish to remind the Senate that we still have a long way to go in processing business. As Honourable Senators will note from the Programme of Business, there are several Bills at the Second Reading and Committee of the Whole stages, as well as Motions on various matters. Additionally, the Chairperson of the Standing Committee on Finance and Budget will shortly give a Notice of Motion on the approval of the Fourth Basis for allocating the share of National Revenue among counties. This is crucial business pursuant to Article 217 of the Constitution, which mandates Parliament to determine the basis for allocating revenue among counties. If passed, the Fourth Basis will be in force for the subsequent financial years until financial year 2029/2030.

Further, in the coming days, the Senate will be considering the Division of Revenue Bill, 2025, a crucial financial instrument that determines the equitable sharing of revenue between the national and county governments. The passage of this Bill will pave the way for other legislative instruments, including the County Allocation of Revenue Bill, the County Governments Additional Allocations Bill, and the respective Cash Disbursements Schedules.

Given the impact of these financial instruments on service delivery, I urge all Honourable Senators to remain focused and committed as we continue to discharge our mandate.

Honourable Senators,

As I conclude, I wish to reiterate that my office remains open and accessible to all Senators for consultations and support in fulfilling your duties. I wish you fruitful deliberations in Part III of the Fourth Session.

I thank you.”
